Over the past week at times it has been increasingly difficult to access school closure/opening information on the iweight.com website.

Our school website is the quickest and easiest way to access school information and is updated sometimes several hours before the iweight.com site.

Should the school require closing, due to adverse weather in the future, please use our website for the quickest and latest information.

Normal school hours will resume as from Monday.

I hope you had a great Christmas and extended holiday enjoying the snow!

Welcome Back & A Happy New Year!
