Exclusion Policy

Statement of intent

At Hunnyhill Primary School, we understand that good behaviour and discipline is essential for promoting a high-quality education.

Amongst other disciplinary sanctions, the school recognises that exclusion of pupils may be necessary where there has been a serious breach, or consistent breaches, of the school's Positive Behaviour Policy. Excluding a pupil may also be required in instances where allowing the pupil to remain in school would be damaging to the education and welfare of themselves or others; in all cases, excluding pupils should only be used as a means of last resort.

This Policy was created to clearly define the legal responsibilities of the headteacher, governing board and LA when responding to pupil exclusions, to ensure that they are dealt with both fairly and lawfully, and in line with DfE statutory guidance.

This policy also aims to secure a pupil's right to an education despite having been excluded, by ensuring that appropriate arrangements are in place.

1. Legal framework

1.1. This policy has due regard to the related statutory legislation including, but not limited to, the following:

- Education Act 2002
- The School Discipline (Pupil Exclusions and Reviews) (England) Regulations 2012
- Education and Inspections Act 2006
- Education Act 1996
- The Education (Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils) (England) Regulations 2007
- The European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR) · Equality Act 2010

1.2. This policy also has due regard to statutory and non-statutory guidance, including, but not limited to, the following:

- DfE (2022) 'Suspension and Permanent Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement'
- DfE (2022) 'Behaviour in Schools'
- DfE (2016) 'Behaviour and discipline in schools'
- DfE (2015) 'Special educational needs and disability code of practice: 0 to 25 years'
- DfE (2018) 'Mental health and behaviour in schools'

1.3. This policy will be implemented in conjunction with the following school policies and procedures:

- Positive Behaviour Policy
- Anti-Bullying Policy
- Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Policy
- Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy

2. Grounds for exclusion

2.1. The school will only exclude a pupil where it is absolutely necessary, and where all other possible disciplinary sanctions, as detailed in the school's Positive Behaviour Policy, have failed to be successful.

2.2. The following examples of behaviour may underline the school's decision to exclude a pupil:

Physical assault against a pupil

- Any incident which poses a risk to other pupils or members of staff, e.g.

Bringing or threat to bring a weapon onto the premises

- Any incident which breaches the law
- Persistent and severe bullying
- Verbal abuse/threatening behaviour and/or physical abuse or assault against a pupil or an adult
- Constant disruption
- A single, serious and major incident, e.g. serious assault on another individual leading to injury

Discriminatory abuse, e.g. racist, homophobic, biphobic, transphobic or ableist abuse

2.3. Pupils can be excluded on a fixed-period basis, i.e. up to 45 school days within a year, or permanently. Similarly, pupils can be permanently excluded following a fixed period exclusion, where further evidence is presented.

2.4. In all cases, the headteacher will decide which exclusion period a pupil will be subject to, depending on what the circumstances warrant.

3. The headteacher's power to exclude

3.1. Only the headteacher has the power to exclude a pupil from the school, and is able to decide whether this is on a fixed-period or permanent basis. All exclusions will only be issued on disciplinary grounds.

3.2. The headteacher is able to exclude pupils from the premises where their behaviour is disruptive during lunchtime. All lunchtime exclusions will be counted as half of a school day.

3.3. The headteacher is able to consider a pupil's disruptive behaviour outside of the school premises as grounds for exclusion, in accordance with the school's Positive Behaviour Policy.

3.4. Any decision made to exclude a pupil will be lawful, proportionate and fair, with respect to legislation relating directly to exclusions and the school's wider legal duties, including the ECHR.

3.5. All exclusions will be formally recorded.

3.6. When sending a pupil home following any exclusion, the headteacher will ensure that they exercise their duty of care at all times and will always inform the parents.

3.7. The headteacher will apply the civil standard of proof when responding to the facts relating to an exclusion, i.e. that 'on the balance of probabilities' it is more likely than not that the facts are true.

3.8. The headteacher may withdraw any exclusion that has not already been reviewed by the governing board.

3.9. At all times, the headteacher will take into account their legal duties under the Equality Act 2010 and the 'Special educational needs and disability code of practice: 0 to 25 years', ensuring that they do not discriminate on any grounds, e.g. race, sex, disability, and will not increase the severity of a pupil's exclusion on these grounds.

3.10. The headteacher will not issue any 'informal' or 'unofficial' exclusions, e.g. sending a pupil home to 'cool-off', regardless of whether or not the parents have agreed to this.

3.11. The headteacher will not use the threat of exclusion as a means of instructing parents to remove their child from the premises.

4. Factors to consider when excluding a pupil

4.1. When considering the exclusion of a pupil, the headteacher will:

- Allow the pupil the opportunity to present their case.
- Take into account any contributing factors that are identified after a case of poor behaviour has occurred, e.g. if the pupil's wellbeing has been compromised, or they have been subjected to bullying.
- Take into consideration whether the pupil has received multiple exclusions or is approaching the legal limit of 45 excluded days per school year, and whether exclusion is serving as an effective sanction.
- Consider early intervention to address underlying causes of disruptive behaviour, including liaising with external agencies, to assess pupils who demonstrate consistently poor behaviour.

4.2. The headteacher will consider what extra support may be available for vulnerable pupil groups whose exclusion rates are higher, to reduce their risk of exclusion, including the following:

- LAC
- Pupils eligible for FSM
- Pupils with SEND
- Certain ethnic groups

4.3. In light of the above, the headteacher will consider avoiding permanently excluding LAC pupils, those with SEMH issues or pupils with an EHC plan. For other vulnerable groups, additional support will be considered.

4.4. Where any member of staff has concerns about vulnerable pupil groups and their behaviour, they will report this to the headteacher, who will consider what extra support or alternative placement is required.

4.5. The headteacher will work in conjunction with the parents of any pupil with additional needs to establish the most effective support mechanisms.

5. Duty to inform parents

5.1. Following the headteacher's decision to exclude a pupil, they will immediately inform the parents, in person or by telephone, of the period of the exclusion and the reasons behind this.

5.2. The headteacher will inform the parents in writing (electronically if written permission has been received from the parents for notices to be sent this way) of the following:

- The reason(s) for the exclusion
- The length of the fixed-period exclusion or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent
- Their right to raise any representations about the exclusion to the governing board, including how the pupil will be involved in this and how the representations will be made
- Their right to attend a meeting where there is a legal requirement for the governing board to consider the exclusion, and the fact that they are able to bring an accompanying individual
- The arrangements that have been made for the pupil to continue their education prior to the organisation of any alternative provision, or the pupil's return to school
- Relevant sources of free, impartial information

5.3. Where the pupil is of compulsory school age, the headteacher will inform the parents by the end of the afternoon session that:

- For the first five days of the exclusion (or until the start date of any alternative provision or the end of the exclusion where this is earlier), parents are legally required to ensure that their child is not present in a public place during school hours without justification, and that parents may receive a penalty fine if they fail to do so.

5.4. Where the headteacher has arranged alternative provision, they will also inform the parents of the following:

- The start and end date for any provision of full-time education
- The address at which the provision will take place

- Any information necessary for the pupil to identify the person they should report to on the starting date

5.5. Where the headteacher is unable to provide information on alternative provision by the end of the afternoon session, they will provide the information in a subsequent written notice without further delay, and within 48 hours of the pupil beginning the provision.

5.6. If the alternative provision is due to begin before the sixth day of the exclusion, the headteacher is able to give less than 48 hours of notice, with parental consent.

5.7. If the headteacher has decided to exclude the pupil for a further fixed period following their original exclusion, or to permanently exclude them, they will notify the parents without delay and issue a new exclusion notice to parents.

6. Duty to inform the governing board and LA

6.1. The headteacher will inform the governing board and LA, without delay, of the following:

- Any permanent exclusions (including where a fixed-period exclusion is followed by a decision to permanently exclude the pupil)

- Any exclusions which would result in the pupil being excluded for more than five school days in a term (or more than 10 lunchtimes)

- Any exclusions which would result in the pupil being absent from an examination or national curriculum test

6.2. For any exclusions, other than those above, the headteacher will notify the governing board and LA once per term.

6.3. All notifications to the governing board and LA will include the reasons for exclusion and the duration of any fixed-period exclusion.

6.4. If the pupil who is excluded lives outside the LA in which the school is located, the headteacher will notify the pupil's 'home authority'.

7. Arranging education for excluded pupils

7.1. For any fixed-period exclusions of more than five school days, the governing board will arrange suitable full-time education for the pupil, which will begin no later than the sixth day of exclusion.

7.2. Where a pupil receives consecutive fixed-period exclusions, these will be regarded as cumulative, and full-time education will still have to be provided from the sixth day of exclusion.

7.3. For permanent exclusions, full-time education will also be provided for the pupil from the sixth day of exclusion.

7.4. The governing board is aware that it is beneficial to excluded pupils to begin their alternative education arrangements before the sixth day of exclusion. The governing board will always attempt to arrange alternative provision before the sixth day of exclusion.

7.5. Where it is not possible to arrange alternative provision during the first five days of exclusion, the school will ensure that they take reasonable steps to set and mark work for the excluded pupil.

7.6. If a pupil with SEND has been excluded, the governing board will ensure that:

- Any alternative provision is arranged in consultation with the pupil's parents, who are able to request preferences.
- When identifying alternative provision, any EHC plan is reviewed or the pupil's needs are reassessed, in consultation with the pupil's parents.

8. Considering exclusions

8.1. The governing board will consider any representations made by parents in regard to exclusions.

8.2. Parents and, where requested, a friend or representative, the headteacher, and a member of the LA will be invited to attend any consideration of exclusions and will be able to make representations.

8.3. Any meeting to consider reinstatement of a pupil will be arranged at a date and time convenient for all parties, and in compliance with any statutory time limits.

8.4. The governing board will consider the reinstatement of an excluded pupil, where:

- The exclusion is permanent.
- The exclusion is fixed-period, and would bring the pupil's total number of excluded school days to more than 15 in any given term.
- The exclusion would result in the pupil missing a public examination.

8.5. In the case of a fixed-period exclusion where the pupil's total number of excluded days is more than 5 but less than 15 school days within a term, if requested by the parents, the governing board will consider exclusions within 50 school days of receiving notification.

8.6. In the case of a fixed period exclusion, where the pupil's total number of excluded school days does not amount to more than five, in the absence of any such representations, the governing board is not required to meet and cannot direct the reinstatement of the pupil.

8.7. Where exclusion would result in a pupil missing a public examination, the governing board will consider the exclusion before the test to decide whether the pupil should be reinstated in time to take the examination.

8.8. If it is not practicable for a sufficient number of governors to consider the decision before the examination, the chair of governors will consider the exclusion alone and decide whether or not to reinstate the pupil.

8.9. In light of the above, the governing board will also consider whether it would be appropriate to allow the excluded pupil to enter the premises to take the examination.

8.10. When considering the reinstatement of an excluded pupil, the governing board will:

- Only discuss the exclusion with the parties present at the meeting.
- Ask for any written evidence prior to the meeting.
- Circulate any written evidence and information to all parties, at least five school days in advance of the meeting.
- Allow pupils and parents to be accompanied by a person of their choice to the meeting.
- Consider what reasonable adjustments need to be made to support the attendance and contribution of parties at the meeting.
- Identify the steps needed to enable and encourage the excluded pupil to attend the meeting and speak on their behalf, or how they may contribute personal views by other means if attendance is not possible.
- Consider the interests and circumstances of the excluded pupil, including the grounds for exclusion.

9. Reaching a decision

9.1. After considering exclusions, the governing board will either:

- Decline to reinstate the pupil.
- Direct the reinstatement of the pupil immediately, or on a specified date.

9.2. If reinstatement would make no practical difference, e.g. if the pupil has already returned to school following a fixed-period exclusion or the parents make clear they do not want their child reinstated, the governing board will still consider whether the pupil should be officially reinstated, and whether the headteacher's decision to exclude the pupil was fair, lawful and proportionate, based on the evidence presented.

9.3. The governing board will apply the civil standard of proof when responding to the facts relating to an exclusion, i.e. that on the 'balance of probabilities' it is more likely than not that the facts are true.

9.4. To reach a decision, the governing board will:

- Identify the steps they intend to take to ensure that all parties involved will have the opportunity to participate and present their views.

- Ensure that minutes are taken of the meeting as a record of the evidence that was considered.
- Ask all parties to withdraw from the meeting before concluding their decision. ·

Consider whether the exclusion of the pupil was lawful, proportionate and fair, taking into account the headteacher's legal duties and any evidence that was presented to the governing board in relation to the decision to exclude.

- Record the outcome of the decision on the pupil's educational records, along with copies, which will be kept for at least six months.
- Make a note of their findings, where they have considered an exclusion but cannot reinstate the pupil.

10. Notification of considered exclusions

10.1. The governing board will notify the parents of the excluded pupil, the headteacher and the LA of their decision following the consideration of an exclusion, in writing and without delay.

10.2. In the case of a permanent exclusion, where the governing board decides not to reinstate the pupil, they will notify the parents:

- That it is permanent, and their right for it to be reviewed by an independent review panel.
- Of the date by which an application for review must be made.
- Of the name and address of whom the review application should be submitted to.
- That any application should set out the grounds on which it is being made and that, where appropriate, this should include reference to how a pupil's SEND is considered relevant to the exclusion.
- That, regardless of whether a pupil has been identified as having SEND, the parents have a right to require the governing board to ensure a SEND expert attends the review.
- Of the role of the SEND expert that will attend the review, and that the parents will not be charged for this.
- That they are required to make it clear if they wish for a SEND expert to attend the review.
- That they may appoint someone at their own expense to make representations to the panel.

10.3. The governing board will also notify parents that, if they believe an exclusion has been issued as a result of discrimination, then they are required to make a claim under the Equality Act 2010 to the First-tier Tribunal (SEND), and that this should be within six months of when the discrimination allegedly took place.

10.4. After any conclusion, the governing board will notify the parents, and all other parties involved, of the decision that was made and the reasoning for this, in sufficient detail.

11. Removing permanently excluded pupils from the school register

11.1. The headteacher will remove pupils from the school register if:

- 15 school days have passed since the parents were notified of the governing board's decision not to reinstate the pupil and no application for an independent panel review has been received.
- The parents have stated in writing that they will not be applying for an independent panel review following a permanent exclusion.

11.2. If an application for an independent panel review has been made within 15 school days, the headteacher will wait until the review has been determined, or abandoned, and until the governing board has completed any reconsideration that the panel recommended or directed it to carry out, before removing the pupil from the school register.

11.3. If a pupil's name is to be removed from the register, the headteacher will make a return to the LA, which will include:

- All the particulars which were entered in the register.
- The address of any parent with whom the pupil normally resides.
- The grounds upon which the pupil's name is to be removed from the register.

11.4. Any return to the LA will be made as soon as the grounds for removal are met and no later than the date in which the pupil's name was removed.

11.5. If a pupil's name has been removed from the register and a discrimination claim is made, the pupil may be reinstated following a decision made by the First-tier Tribunal (SEND) or County Court.

11.6. Whilst a pupil's name remains on the admissions register, the appropriate code will be used to mark the pupil's attendance:

- Code B: Education off-site
- Code D: Dual registration
- Code E: Absent and not attending alternative provision

12. Independent review panel

12.1. The panel will review the governing board's decision not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil if the parents submit their application for this within the required time frame.

12.2. Parents are required to submit their applications within:

- 15 school days of the governing board's notification of their decision.

· 15 school days of the final determination of a discriminatory claim made under the Equality Act 2010.

12.3. Any application made outside of this timeframe will not be reviewed.

12.4. Parents are able to request an independent panel review even if they did not make a case to, or attend, the governing board's initial consideration of the exclusion.

12.5. The panel will adhere to all statutory guidelines when conducting an independent panel review, as outlined in the DfE's statutory guidance document 'Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England' 2017.

13. Appointing a SEND expert

13.1. If requested by parents in their application for an independent review panel, the LA will appoint a SEND expert to attend the panel and covers the associated costs of this appointment.

13.2. The LA will make arrangements to indemnify the SEND expert against any legal costs and expenses reasonably incurred as a result of any decisions or actions connected to the review and which are taken in good faith.

13.3. Parents have a right to request the attendance of a SEND expert at a review, regardless of whether the school recognises that their child has SEND.

13.4. The SEND expert's role is set out in section 14 of this policy.

13.5. An individual will not serve as a SEND expert if they have, or at any time have had, any connection with the LA, school, parents or pupil, or the incident leading to the exclusion, which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about their ability to act impartially; however, an individual is not taken to have such a connection solely because they are an employee of the LA.

13.6. The SEND expert will be a professional with first-hand experience of the assessment and support of SEND, as well as an understanding of the legal requirements on schools in relation to SEND. Examples of suitable individuals might include educational psychologists, specialist SEND teachers, SENCOs and behaviour support teachers.

13.7. Recently retired individuals are not precluded from fulfilling this role; however, during interview, the LA will assess the knowledge of such individuals in order to ensure that they have a good understanding of current practice and the legal requirements on schools in relation to SEND.

13.8. Whilst individuals are not automatically taken to be partial simply because they are an employee of, or contracted by, the LA, they will not have had any previous involvement in the assessment or support of SEND for the excluded pupil, or siblings of the excluded pupil. The LA will request that prospective SEND experts declare any conflict of interest at the earliest opportunity.

13.9. The final decision on the appointment of a SEND expert is for the LA to make, but it will take reasonable steps to ensure that parents have confidence in the impartiality and capability of the SEND expert. Where possible, this will include offering parents a choice of SEND expert. In order to meet its duties within the statutory time frame, the LA will consider maintaining a list of individuals capable of performing the role of SEND expert in advance of a request.

13.10. The LA will determine the amount of any payment in relation to the appointment of the SEND expert, such as financial loss, travel and subsistence allowances.

14. The role of a SEND expert

14.1. The SEND expert's role is analogous to an expert witness, providing (orally and/or written) impartial advice to the panel on how SEND might be relevant to the exclusion. The SEND expert will base their advice on the evidence provided to the panel. The SEND expert's role does not include making an assessment of the pupil's SEND.

14.2. The focus of the SEND expert's advice will be on whether the school's policies which relate to SEND, or the application of these policies in relation to the excluded pupil, were legal, reasonable and procedurally fair. If the SEND expert believes that this was not the case, they will, where possible, advise the panel on the possible contribution this could have made to the circumstances of the pupil's exclusion.

14.3. Where the school does not recognise that a pupil has SEND, the SEND expert will advise the panel on whether they believe the school acted in a legal, reasonable and procedurally fair way with respect to the identification of any SEND that the pupil may potentially have, and any contribution that this could have made to the circumstances of the pupil's exclusion.

14.4. The SEND expert will not criticise a school's policies or actions simply because they believe a different approach should have been followed or because another school might have taken a different approach.

15. Appointing a clerk

15.1. The school will decide whether to appoint a clerk to the independent review panel, or to make alternative arrangements to administer the panel.

15.2. Where a clerk is appointed the school/LA will ensure that the clerk did not serve as clerk to the governing board when the decision was made not to reinstate the pupil.

16. The role of a clerk

16.1. The clerk's role is to provide advice to the panel and parties to the review on procedure, law and statutory guidance on exclusions.

16.2. The clerk will:

- Identify, in advance of the meeting, whether the excluded pupil wishes to attend the panel hearing, taking reasonable steps to enable the pupil to feedback their views, irrespective of their attendance.
- Identify, in advance of the meeting, whether any alleged victims of the incident(s) leading up to the exclusion wish to attend the panel hearing, taking reasonable steps to enable them to feedback their views, irrespective of their attendance.
- Ensure that the panel is able to hear from any witnesses to the incident(s) leading to the exclusion, taking into account the fact that some of these people may be pupils at the school. Pupils under 18 will not be allowed to appear in person without parental consent.
- Inform the parents, headteacher, governing board, that they are entitled to make oral and written representations to the panel, attend the hearing, and be represented.
- Ensure that all parties are:
  - Provided with copies of relevant papers at least five school days before the review, notifying the panel if any requested documents have not been provided in case the panel wishes to adjourn until a later date.
  - Informed about who is attending the meeting, and what their roles are.
- Attend the review and ensure that minutes are produced in accordance with instructions from the independent review panel.

16.3. Where a clerk is not appointed, the school/LA will undertake the functions outlined in paragraphs 16.1 and 16.2 of this policy.

17. The duties of independent review panel members in the conduct of a review panel

17.1. The role of the panel is to review the governing board's decision not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil. In reviewing the decision, the panel will consider the interests and circumstances of the excluded pupil, including the circumstances in which the pupil was excluded, and have regard to the interests of other pupils and people working at the school.

17.2. The panel will apply the civil standard of proof, rather than the criminal standard of 'beyond reasonable doubt'.

17.3. Following the review, the panel will do one of the following:

- Uphold the decision.
- Recommend that the governing board reconsiders reinstatement.
- Quash the decision and direct that the governing board reconsiders reinstatement.

17.4. The panel's decision does not have to be unanimous and can be decided by a majority vote. It is binding on the pupil, parents, the governing board, headteacher and the LA.

18. Reconsidering reinstatement following a review

18.1. Where the independent review panel instructs the governing board to reconsider their decision not to reinstate a pupil, they will do so within 10 school days of being given notice of the review panel's decision.

18.2. The school is aware that if, following an instruction to reconsider, the governing board does not offer to reinstate the pupil, then a £4,000 adjustment will be made to the school's budget.

18.3. If, following reconsideration, the governing board offers to reinstate the pupil but the parents decline, no adjustment will be made to the school's budget.

18.4. Following reconsideration, the governing board will notify the parents, the headteacher and the LA of their reconsidered decision and the reasons for this.

19. Criminal investigations

19.1. The headteacher will not postpone taking a decision to exclude a pupil due to a police investigation being underway, or any criminal proceedings that are in place.

19.2. The headteacher will give particular consideration when deciding to exclude a pupil where evidence is limited by a police investigation, to ensure that any decision made is fair and reasonable.

19.3. If the governing board is required to consider the headteacher's decision in these circumstances, they will not postpone the meeting and will make a decision based on the evidence available.

20. Training requirements

20.1. The school will ensure that all independent review panel members and clerks have received training within the two years prior to the date of the review.

20.2. Training will cover:

- The requirements of the legislation, regulations and statutory guidance governing exclusions.

- The need for the panel to observe procedural fairness and the rules of natural justice.

- The role of the chair of a review panel. · The role of the clerk to a review panel.

- The duties of headteachers, governing boards and the panel under the Equality Act 2010.

· The effect of section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 and the need to act in a manner compatible with human rights protected by that Act.

20.3. Clerks will also have an up-to-date understanding on developments in case law which are relevant to exclusion.

21. Monitoring and review

21.1. This policy will be reviewed annually by the headteacher in conjunction with the governing board.

21.2. All members of staff will be required to familiarise themselves with this policy as part of their induction programme.

National standard list of reasons for exclusions

APPENDIX C

Changes to the exclusion process during the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic

The government has introduced new regulations that change some of the procedures that must be followed in relation to an exclusion, to give greater flexibility to schools, parents and LAs during the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. They apply to all maintained schools.

Some temporary changes have been made to the school exclusion process due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. The arrangements and procedures that must follow a decision to exclude on disciplinary grounds, as set out in our wider Exclusion Policy above, remain unchanged unless noted within this appendix. This appendix sets out what these changes are and what this means for our exclusion procedures in practice.

1 . Legal framework

1.1. This appendix has due regard to the related legislation and statutory guidance including, but not limited to, the following:

- The School Discipline (England) (Coronavirus) (Pupil Exclusions and Reviews) (Amendment) Regulations 2020
- DfE (2020) 'Changes to the school exclusion process during the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak'

2 . Application of arrangements

2.1. All exclusions occurring between 1 June 2020 and 24 September 2020 (inclusive) are subject to amended arrangements with regards to:

- The use of remote access technology for meetings relating to exclusions.
- The deadline for applications for an independent review.
- Timescale amendments, under certain circumstances.

2.2. Meetings relating to exclusions occurring between 25 September 2020 and 24 March 2021 will take place within the normal timescales set out in the main body of this policy.

2.3. The governing board and arranging authority for independent review panels(IRPs) will take all reasonable steps to meet the normal timescales for exclusions occurring after 24 September 2020. In doing this, they will:

- Consider the DfE's 'Guidance for full opening: schools'.
- Facilitate remote access meetings where it is not reasonably practicable to meet in person.

2.4. If deadlines are missed due to the coronavirus pandemic, the meeting will be held as soon as it becomes reasonably practicable to meet either in person or via remote access.

2.5. Any exclusions covered by these arrangements will continue to be subject to them until the procedures for scrutiny of the exclusion have been exhausted.

2.6. For the purpose of this appendix, an exclusion will be taken as having 'occurred' on the first day of the exclusion, not the date when the decision to exclude was made or communicated.

3. Deciding whether a meeting should be held remotely

3.1. For exclusions occurring between 1 June 2020 and 24 March 2021 (inclusive), meetings of the governing board or IRP will be held via remote access if:

- It is not reasonably practicable for the meeting to take place in person, within the usual timescales, due to coronavirus.
- The governing board (or arranging authority if the meeting is an IRP) is satisfied that:
  - All the participants agree to the use of remote access.
  - All the participants have access to the technology that will allow them to hear and speak throughout the meeting, and to see and be seen if a video call is used.
  - All the participants will be able to put across their point of view or fulfil their function.
  - The meeting can be held fairly and transparently via remote access.

3.2. The governing board (or arranging authority if the meeting is an IRP) will be responsible for ensuring these conditions are met before a meeting takes place.

3.3. When determining whether it would be reasonably practicable to meet in person, the governing board or arranging authority will assess:

- The facts of the case.
- The circumstances in which a meeting could be expected to take place.
- The needs of the intended participants.
- The latest public health guidance.

4. Arranging a remote access meeting

4.1. The governing board or arranging authority will explain the technology they propose to use to participants and will ensure that the participants (particularly pupils and their parents) know that they do not have to agree to a meeting being held via remote access.

4.2. Pupils and parents involved in meetings will be made aware that if they do not consent to a remote access meeting, the meeting is likely to be delayed.

4.3. Where a parent or pupil has consented to a remote access meeting, all other participants will make reasonable efforts to accommodate that preference unless there is a clear reason not to.

- 4.4. The normal requirements for who must be invited to a meeting (as set out in the wider policy) remain in place; however, those who have no intention of taking part in the meeting will not be treated as 'participants' for the purpose of the arrangements in this appendix.
- 4.5. Governing boards, arranging authorities and panel members will comply with equalities legislation and recognise that some participants may find it difficult to participate in a remote access meeting, e.g. if they have SEND or EAL.
- 4.6. The chair of the meeting will check that the participants understand the proceedings and can engage with them, to ensure the meeting is conducted fairly.
- 4.7. Once the meeting starts, if it cannot proceed fairly (e.g. if a participant cannot access it), the meeting will be adjourned.
- 4.8. The use of remote access will not alter any other procedural requirements that apply during the meeting.
- 4.9. Though written representations will be considered, solely paper-based meetings will not be permitted.
- 4.10. As long as the conditions for a remote access meeting are met, it will be possible for some participants to attend a meeting in person and for others to join via remote access.
- 4.11. To help meetings run smoothly and ensure they are accessible for participants, the governing board or the arranging authority will:
  - Provide clear instructions to participants about how to join the meeting virtually, and distribute the relevant papers in a timely manner ahead of the meeting.
  - Indicate a named person who participants can contact to discuss any questions they may have before the meeting.
  - Ensure the chair is prepared to explain the agenda at the start of the meeting, and to provide clear guidance on how the meeting will be run.
  - Consider holding a pre-meeting with participants to check that the available technology is suitable and that all participants understand how to access the meeting.

5. Applications for independent reviews of exclusions

This section applies to all exclusions occurring between 1 June 2020 and 24 March 2021 (inclusive).

- 5.1. Where the governing board declines to reinstate a pupil who has been permanently excluded, their parents (or the pupil if they are 18 or over) can apply for a review of this decision.

- 5.2. For exclusions covered under these arrangements (as set out in 2.1 and 2.2 of this appendix), the deadline for applications will be increased to 25 school days from the date on which notice in writing of the governing board's decision was given to parents (or the pupil if they are aged 18 or over).
- 5.3. The school will wait for the extended period of 25 school days to pass without an application having been made before deleting the name of the permanently excluded pupil from the admissions register.

6. Meetings of independent review panels to consider permanent exclusions

This section applies to all exclusions occurring between 1 June and 24 September (inclusive).

- 6.1. If it has not be reasonably practicable for a review panel to meet in person within 15 school days due to coronavirus and it has not been possible to hold a remote meeting, the limit will be extended to 25 school days, or as long as reasonably necessary for a reason related to coronavirus.
- 6.2. The arranging authority will arrange for overdue meetings to take place via remote access, if the conditions can be met, or in person as soon as it is safe and practicable to do so.

7. Meetings to consider permanent and fixed-term exclusions

This section applies to all exclusions occurring between 1 June and 24 September (inclusive).

- 7.1. If a pupil is permanently excluded or received a fixed-term exclusion which results in them having been excluded for 16 or more days in a term, the governing board will try to meet to discuss reinstatement within 15 school days.
- 7.2. If it has not been reasonably practicable for the governing board to meet in person within 15 school days due to coronavirus, and it has not been possible to hold a remote meeting, the limit will be extended to 25 school days, or as long as reasonably necessary for a reason related to coronavirus.
- 7.3. If a pupil receives a fixed-term exclusion which results in them having been excluded for at least 6 school days in a term but not more than 15 school days in that term, and the parent (or pupil if they are 18 or over) chooses to make representations about the exclusion, the governing board will meet to discuss reinstatement within 50 school days.
- 7.4. If it has not been reasonably practicable for the governing board to meet in person within 50 school days due to coronavirus, and it has not been possible to hold a remote meeting, the limit will be extended to 60 days, or as long as reasonably necessary for a reason related to coronavirus.

8. Exclusions occurring between 25 September 2020 and 24 March 2021

The arrangements within this section apply to exclusions occurring between 25 September 2020 and 24 March 2021 (inclusive).

8.1. Governing board meetings and independent review panel meetings will take place within the normal timescales set out in the DfE's 'Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England' guidance, other than the deadline for the application of an independent review.

8.2. Governing boards and arranging authorities for independent review panels will take all reasonable steps to meet the normal deadlines for exclusions occurring after 24 September 2020.

8.3. Governing boards and arranging authorities will:

- Consider the guidance on protective measures for the full opening of schools
- Facilitate remote access meetings where it is not reasonably practicable to meet in person

8.4. If deadlines are missed because of coronavirus, meetings will be held as soon as it becomes either reasonably practicable to meet in person or via remote access (respecting the conditions for such a meeting).

9. Monitoring and review

9.1. The arrangements in this appendix will be reviewed when there are any changes to government guidance.

9.2. Any changes to the arrangements in this appendix will be communicated to all stakeholders.
